

Christmas on the Green 2019

Schedule of Events

Friday, December 6

6:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Live Reindeer – Located near the gazebo.

Food - Hot dogs, chili, and beverages available from Boy Scout Pack 76. Baked treats from Dobo's Delights.

Kettle Corn from Cumberland Kettle Corn.

Horse-Drawn Carriage Rides – Depart from 300 Block of N. Main Street (near Can't Stop Running) Cost is $1 per person.

Trackless Train – Departs in front of Readmore's Hallmark, 430 N. Main St

Piqua Public Library Christmas Decorations – The Piqua Public Library Staff has festively decorated the entire Library. Definitely worth a visit!

Bonfires – Main Street

Kiddie Christmas Shop - Sponsored by Mainstreet Piqua - Located in the Piqua Area Chamber of Commerce, the little ones can pick out gifts for everyone for $5 or less. (Doors open promptly at 6 p.m.)

Reindeer Games – Stonebridge Community Church, 105 E. Greene Street – The perfect spot for some friendly competition – giant tic tac toe, giant checkers, giant dominoes, connect four and yahtzee. Also a warming station with refreshments. Free & open to Everyone!

Cookie Decorating Station (NEW!) - Stonebridge Community Church, 105 E. Greene Street – Decorate sugar cookies just the way you like it! Icing, sprinkles and inspiration provided! (FREE!)

Christmas Shopping - Visit downtown retailers throughout the evening

Mr. Twister Balloon Sculptures – Inside Readmore's Hallmark, 430 N. Main Street (FREE)

St. James Church hat and glove give-away – Intersection of High and Main Streets.

The Party Brush (Inside Bounce Back Studio - 411 N. Main Street) will be offering predawn Christmas characters or blank canvases to create your own. $5 each.

6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Piqua Public Library Children's Activities - Sponsored by Piqua Public Library

Located in the Children's Department of the Piqua Public Library. Enter through main lobby.

Gotham City Brass Quintet - Strolling Downtown Streets

Ice Sculpting Demonstration – 400 Block of N. Main Street. Watch an ice sculpture being created before your eyes. Prepare yourself for flying ice and lots of creativity.

Face Painter - Located in the Children's Department of the Piqua Public Library. (FREE)

Strolling carolers - Christian Academy Schools 'Voices Eternal'

7:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Visits with Santa - Stop and visit with Santa in the lobby of the Piqua Public Library, 116 W. High Street.

Gazebo/Library Lobby Schedule

7:00 - Welcoming Comments - Welcoming comments from Daniel P. French of the Alfred W. French Foundation

O'Tannenbaum – Dr. Michael Houser

Piqua High School's "The Company" – Piqua High School Show Choir

Community Caroling (Song books provided.)

Mainstreet Piqua's annual Christmas on the Green celebration is presented by the Alfred W. French Fund of the Piqua Community Foundation & Premier Health.